

REGAINING LOST VOICE

HARRIS OF MARSDEN GLAD OF NEVILLE'S TREATMENT.

The Healer's Wonderful Work is Endorsed by Influential Men Wherever He Has Been—His Patients Are All Well Satisfied.

Twenty-four out of twenty-six patients accepted on Neville's first three trips to Denison, Texas, have either been cured outright or greatly benefited, is the report that comes to the Ardmoreite from an old physician who has been investigating the work of the great healer who has offices at the Whittington hotel all day Monday and until 2 p. m. Tuesday each week.

The story of Neville's success seems to repeat wherever he goes, and his endorsements come from indisputable sources. When such men as Dr. Safford of Sherman, Dr. Mayfield of Denison, Banker J. F. Lilley of White-wright, Attorney D. C. McCurtain of South McAlester, James A. McCarty of Durant, J. R. Perry of Coalgate, R. B. Willis of Willis and Senator Nelson Chisley of Davis, give hearty endorsement to this new method of treatment, the public can rest assured that there is great virtue in it. They are all prominent men, conservative and reliable.

A very remarkable cure now in progress under Neville's treatment is that of J. N. Harris of Marsden, a small town twelve miles southwest of Ardmore. When seen at the Whittington hotel Monday morning, Mr. Harris said he was glad he had decided to take the treatment as it was restoring his lost voice. "I am gaining right along," said he, "and at times now I can speak as naturally as ever. This man is curing me." Mr. Harris had not been able to speak above a whisper for years.

Neville has several cases of stomach and liver troubles under treatment and an inquiry shows fine improvement in every patient. All his patients suffering from nervous affections also report great improvement. A bad case of catarrh which is showing marked improvement is that of Dixie Colbert. His satisfaction with the treatment is better told in his own words. When asked how he was getting along, he said:

"I am a great deal better. I have all the confidence in the world in this treatment for I know it is curing me."

Life Insurance written by an old line company, fifty-eight years old with sixty-eight million dollars with which to protect its policy holders.

The Penn Mutual Life Insurance company sells insurance for less money than any other old line company doing business in the United States. Run down the columns and see just what one thousand dollars insurance will cost you at your age. We are paying an annual dividend of over 24 per cent on the figures mentioned above. Some of our competitors will tell you we do not pay the dividends claimed. Then read what one of the many policy holders in the Penn has to say:

Ada, Ind. Ter., Aug. 5, 1905.
Mr. M. L. Alexander,
Ardmore, Ind. Ter.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your letter of August 4th I will say that I have a life insurance policy in the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company for ten thousand dollars. The first premium paid was two hundred and thirty-three dollars and twenty cents. I was very much gratified and can also say surprised when the second payment fell due last winter to find that I was credited with fifty-seven dollars dividends (over 24 per cent and that this amount was deducted from my second premium. I want to say that I am entirely satisfied with my policy and with the treatment which I have received at the hands of your company.

Your friend,
(Signed) HENRY M. FURMAN.

I challenge my competitors to duplicate the terms mentioned above. If they will sell you a $1,000 insurance policy at these figures, give them your application, come to me and I will pay you premium.

I challenge comparison on any plan of insurance written and guarantee to save you money by placing your insurance with the great Penn Mutual.

M. L. ALEXANDER,
General Agent.
